County Endorses Rail Extension In The Sugar Section

County Commissioners this week told representatives of two railroads they were deeply interested in seeing rail lines extended into the Everglades farming sections—but they declined to endorse that it be done by any certain railroad.

The board heard Philip Beverly representing the Atlantic Coast Line and John Corbett, representing the Florida East Coast.

ACL, according to Beverly, two months ago made application to extend its present Glades facilities by about 13 miles into the heart of the cane growing area.

The FEC, according to Corbett, said it has plans of extending its Glades lines by another 18 miles to serve sugar interests. The new rail line, Corbett said, would cost about $2 million and that the FEC is ready, able and willing to build.

Corbett admitted that his company only filed application to build days ago.

Questioning the two representatives, Commissioner Paul Rardin, Canal Point, wanted to know who was going to pay costs of construction, the railroads or farming interests. He pointed out that a spur line built to the Glades Sugar House cost the firm $155,000. Both rail representatives assured Commissioner Rardin that extensions will be paid for by the railroads.

Final vote of the commission on the project was for a strong resolution to the Interstate Commerce Commission and Florida Railroad Commission, stating a critical need for additional transportation to serve a fast-expanding sugar industry and to help promote further development of the Glades.

spectively, to the group.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by the hostesses, Mrs. J. L. Tyson and Mrs. Richard Nasom.

The sugar boom continues in the Lake Okeechobee Farming Region. Sugar cane is being planted on land heretofore planted in sweet corn and other tender vegetables. This week Osceola Farms, Inc., located five miles east of Canal Point, announces doubling of mill capacity for the year 1964-65.

High officials of Osceola said yesterday that finances have been worked out and that several local farmers will join Osceola in planting an additional 8,000 acres of sugar cane for the 1964-65 harvest season. Osceola will plant more than 2,000 additional acres, and local growers will plant plots from 80 acres by one farmer up to 1600 by another local group. A couple of the local growers will plant as much as 800 additional acres and there will be several smaller plots.

An Osceola official said that the mill will necessarily have to be doubled in size to take care of this increase in acreage. He said that plans are on the drawing board for the expansion and just as soon as technical details can be worked out the move will be made for future expansion.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

County Commissioners this week decided to take a real close look at provisions of an agreement which would allow use of federal funds to help reconstruct a runway at International Airport.

The job is estimated to cost about $80,000 and half of that amount could come from federal funds if the county met certain requirements.

This would include No race or religious restriction on use of the airport. (there are none now).

No granting of exclusive franchises for aeronautical services — such as sale of gasoline, charter flights, sale of plane parts. (there are none now).

Easements at the end of runways to provide a clear flight path. This is what caused commission concern since at one end of the runway involved is a settlement known as Morrison Homes and at the other end a large building housing an industry.

The commission asked its engineering department to find out if the government's FAA expects the county to buy up the buildings and land or if less costly arrangements would be acceptable to fulfill the end of the runway easements.

No final action was taken on the agreement, pending further checks with the FAA.

Edward Eissey Is Local PTA Speaker

Edward Eissey, principal of the Howell Watkins Junior High School, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Canal Point Parent-Teacher's Association held Mon. night in the school cafeteria, with the president, W. The group adopted as the project for this year, the purchasing of an electric hectograph for the school.

Members fees were collected at the door by Mrs. Stanley Hooks in the absence of the membership chairman, Mrs. James Gibson, who was in the hospital. Mrs. Hooks announced that there were 80 members as of Monday night.

Mr. Blackwell announced that a conference of PTA leaders will be held on October 9, from 10 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. at the Boys School at Okeechobee, to acquaint them with the treatment and training given children who must go before juvenile court. Lunch may be obtained that day at the Boys School for 50 cents.

Principal White introduced members of the faculty, and Mr. Blackwell presented Mr. White, the teachers, the cafeteria manager and her assistant and the caretaker with gifts, and distributed year books to members.

A reception for the teachers followed the program. Hostesses were Mrs. W. E. McCall, Mrs. Leonard Maxson, Mrs. J. H. Strayer and Mrs. Coleman Conley.

Contest By Minute Maid $25,000

ORLANDO — A $60,000 "Bushel of Bucks Cash-Stakes" contest will be sponsored by Minute Maid Frozen Concentrates this fall. The grand prize will be $25,000 in cash.

Fair Board Told County Can't Pay Its Bonded Debt

South Florida Fair and Exposition committeemen asked the County Commission this week to pick up a $104,000 tab which the fair owes on a bond issue.

In return, the fair board would deed 32 acres of land to the county—land purchased by the bond issue—then the county was expected to turn around and deed the same 32 acres of land back to the fair board, only this time with a reverter clause which would set the land aside for public use from here on out.

The commission listened to the proposition; heard the board attorney say the commission couldn't assume the bonded debt; then suggested that the fair board take the $32,500 which the county appropriates for the fair each year, and apply this against the bonded debt.

The fair board said to use the $32,500 each year would cut down on its capital improvement program and said the county allotment which is to be paid Oct. 1 for the next year, has already been spent.

Some time ago, the county gave the fair board a plot of land for a permanent fair site. The deed included a reverter clause. Later the fair board, which needed additional access to the original county site, purchased what is generally known as the Speedway property. It was this 32 acres which the fair board financed through the bond issue. Since the issue was floated, little has been paid on the principal. The issue is due for payment in five years and the fair board admitted that with its present operation it would be hard put to meet the obligation.

Another solution to the problem, suggested at the meeting was a special legislative act authorizing a special tax to pay the debt.

After an hour's discussion, the fair board delegation left, still faced with the problem of meeting a $104,000 bond payment in five years.

South Miami Has Fountain Of Youth

SOUTH MIAMI — The "fountain of youth" may have been located in St. Augustine—but there are a lot of people who would argue that it's in South Miami!

That's the site of the Sta-Youthful Clinic where for the past five years hundreds of Floridians and vacationers have gone through the nonsurgical process called "skin regeneration" or "skin rejuvenation."

Skin rejuvenation is a highly specialized procedure whereby a special formula is used to induce in the skin a reaction that actually replaces the old, wrinkled tissue with new tissue. There is no surgery of any sort involved.

Herschel E. Pickerrill, director of the clinic, whose family has operated a similar clinic in San Francisco since 1938, says that the process is "primarily cosmetic in nature."

"Wrinkled skin becomes youthful. Muddy complexions take on a new look. Freckles, blemishes and moles disappear and scars either vanish or are greatly improved," Pickerrill says.

Non-surgical face rejuvenation requires about 10 days in the clinic and $1,000—the cost of going through the process. There are no hidden extras. The fee includes the actual face regeneration plus room, board, management by medically trained personnel and a health examination by a Florida licensed physician.

What type of people have been through the face regeneration process? "Practically every type you can think of," Pickerrill said. "Women in the business world; those in show business; middle-aged housewives who want to look young again; young women with skin blemishes; and men, too!"

Skin rejuvenation is not new—but only recently has there been suit a clamor for it by the public. Pickerrill explained that the process was discovered in Hungary in the 19th century and spread to the United States, where it flourished during the Twenties in the movie colony of California. Pickerrill's family founded the first licensed facial rejuvenation clinic in San Francisco in 1938 and it has been at the same location ever since. The South Miami Clinic was founded in 1959.

Why do women flock in such great numbers nowadays to go through facial rejuvenation? Pickerrill says that the women—and the men, too—who go through the cosmetic treatment usually have one thing in mind.

"They want to look as young as they feel."

Last Fall's Freeze Hurt Citrus Crops

LAKELAND — Florida is very much in the citrus business despite the severe freeze of last December, according to a Florida Citrus Commission official who addressed the members of the International Apple Association in St. Louis recently.

LeRoy Mobley, commission statistician, making a report on Florida citrus, said the freeze cut more than 56 million boxes of fruit off the estimate of last season's crop.

"Nonetheless, we expect to have enough good quality fruit available for fresh distribution, and the supplies of frozen orange concentrate should be sufficient to allow volume marketings," Mobley reported.

*"Today we need a nation of Minute Men . . . .
citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life . . . ."*

—JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

10 days after his inauguration as the 35th President of the United States.

Twenty years ago, in the dark, uneasy days before Pearl Harbor, the Minute Man of Concord, timeless symbol of our Nation's determination to defend its freedom, emerged as the emblem of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. When war came, the Minute Man became the rallying force behind the huge and overwhelmingly successful effort to back our fighting men with War Bonds.

In this, the 20th anniversary year of Savings Bonds, the Minute Man of Concord calls all Americans to an unrelenting effort to help preserve our peace and freedom, threatened by forces more powerful and resourceful than those we faced in 1941. Though this effort will take many forms, one way open to all is the continued investment in Shares in America, U. S. Savings Bonds, by "citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life."

For 20 years America's newspapers have published Savings Bonds ads at no cost to the Government. The Treasury Dept. is grateful to The Advertising Council and this newspaper for their patriotic support.

83-Year-Old Baby

In 1880 when Floridians picked up a phone for the first time, they talked — and that's all. But look what happens today. You can mind the baby (Home Interphone), talk hands free (Speakerphone), and conduct committee meetings (Call Director). Not only that, all Florida phones are now 100% dial. In spite of all the things phones do today, it's only the beginning. More and better services are being developed right now to make your telephone an even greater marvel of convenience and pleasure, at the lowest possible cost.

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to  $2\frac{1}{4}\%$  for the first year and a half, then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

MRS. RALPH HOOKER MCCOTTER, JR.

Miss Shirley Ann Levins Is Married To Ralph Hooker McCotter, Jr. On Sept. 7

Miss Shirley Ann Levins became the bride of Ralph Hooker McCotter, Jr. Saturday, September 7, in a 5:30 p. m. double ring ceremony at the Church of God of Prophecy on East Main Street, Pahokee. The nuptial service was performed by Rev. James D. Raley of Bonifay, cousin of the bride, before an altar decorated with candelabra and tall baskets of gladioli and mums against a background of palms.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Levins, 151 South Lake Ave., Pahokee, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ralph McCotter, and the late Mr. McCotter, Arapahoe, North Carolina.

A program of traditional wedding marches was presented by James Batchelor, Jr., organist, and Miss Dorothy Batchelor, soloist, who sang, "Because," "On Promise Me," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her brother, H. M. Levins, Jr., the bride was lovely in a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta with re-embroidered lace appliques on the full skirt ending in a chapel train. The fitted bodice was fashioned of re-embroidered lace with sabrina neckline, and sleeves ending in lily points at the wrists. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of lace, seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations entwined with ivy and centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Virginia Levins, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a street length gown of aqua silk organza over taffeta, featuring a scalloped neckline. Her veil was attached to a matching silk organza bow, and her bouquet was of mums entwined with ivy and tinted to match her dress.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Judy, Ila, and Jean Kinard, cousins of the bride, wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor, except in a darker shade, and carried identical bouquets.

Nellie Sconyers was flower girl and wore an aqua dress fashioned with waistline bow and circular skirt. She wore a matching headband and carried a basket of roses.

Dennis McCotter of Arapahoe, N. C. served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Jack Boyd of Arapahoe, N. C.; Glen Levins, Pahokee, brother of the bride; and Tony Woodham, Belle Glade, cousin of the bride.

The mother of the bride chose a sandalwood jersey dress with beige accessories for her daughter's wedding. And Mrs. McCotter, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of sky blue embroidered organza with blue accessories. White orchid corsages completed the costumes of both.

Assisting at the reception which was held at the Pahokee Woman's Club building were Miss Myra Baxter, Fort Myers, cousin of the bride, who presided at the punch bowl; and Mrs. Nedra Soles and Mrs. Betty Sconyers of Belle Glade who served portions of the wedding cake. Miss Vicki Pitts had charge of the bride's book.

The bride is a graduate of Pahokee High School, Class of 1960, and has been employed in the business office of Southern Bell Telephone Company at Belle Glade.

The bridegroom attended Pamlico County High School in Bayboro, N. C. and is now a senior at East Carolina College in Greenville, N. C. where he is majoring in business education.

Following a wedding trip through north Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, the couple will make their home at 312 West 2nd Street, Greenville, N. C.

Special Program Pahokee Hi School

Did you know that there is the possibility of an Adult Program of General Interest at Pahokee High School's Industrial Arts shop?

It is designed to give the adult craftsman, both men and women, an opportunity to work with the tools and equipment of all general areas such as woodworking, metals, leathercraft, and ceramics. It will not be conducted as a class but as a supervised hobby shop or workshop. Individuals will be expected to supply their own materials, supplies, and working plans. If supplies cannot be purchased locally, arrangements may be made through instructor for the purchase of these supplies.

In order for this program to become authorized we must have a minimum enrollment of twenty and an average daily attendance of fifteen. The county and state will not authorize the program if these two requirements are not met.

The program is scheduled to run for twelve weeks, the shop being open for three hours one night a week. In order to decide which night the shop will be held, it is important that we know which nights are available to individuals wishing to participate.

There are no requirements for registration other than a three dollar registration fee.

If you wish to participate in this program, contact Joe McIlwain at telephone number 924-5355 after four o'clock p. m. or leave information with school secretary at telephone number 924-3801. Please leave name and telephone number and let it be known which night will be most suitable to you plus an alternate or second most suitable night.
